Two pairs of feet sit next to each other in front of a park bench.	Upbeat and sentimental music plays over the scene.
From behind, we see two men on a bench.
The two men are deep in conversation. The man on the left inches his foot toward the other man's feet.
As he listens intently, the man on the left reaches his pinky toward the hand of the man on the right.
They touch. The man on the right is surprised and stops talking.
The man on the left looks nervous as their eyes meet.
They smile. We see them walking off together.	Text: Start your journey to real intimacy

In a warm home, a couple is in the kitchen making dinner. In the kitchen we see dishes out, partially chopped vegetables, a loaf of bread, an open bottle of wine, and two glasses.	Upbeat and sentimental music plays over the scene.
As she sways her hips, Woman 1 mixes something in a bowl.
Woman 2 comes up from behind her. They hug intimately, now swaying together.
Woman 1 turns around and lifts the spoon up to Woman 2 so that she can taste.
After the taste, Woman 1 waits expectantly for Woman 2 to react. Beat.
Woman 2 makes a disgusted face and looks around for somewhere to spit it out.
Woman 1 follows Woman 2 with her eyes, shocked and worried. Woman 2 begins to laugh.
Realizing she was playing, Woman 1 joins in the laughter. She leans in to kiss Woman 2.	Text: Find your person

HunBun (Home/Cards)	Written by: Claudia Skolaut
	Directed by: Aarsh Gyani
Visual	Audio
Two women sit at a table with HunBun playing cards in front of them.	Upbeat and sentimental music plays over the scene.
One woman finishes dealing the cards evenly between the two of them. She looks up with a face that says "Are you ready?"
The second woman returns the look with a confident nod, as if to say "Game On."
The women take turns placing cards face-up in the middle of the table. They are playing Slap Jack.
A Jack appears on the stack.
Both of the women lunge their hands at the card to slap it. Their hands reach the card at the same time and touch.
They hold their hands together in that spot for a moment and look into each other's eyes, smiling.
Continuing the game, the women once again take turns quickly putting cards down in the middle.

The woman who dealt the cards, puts down a Queen of Hearts that has a hand-written "I love you" across it.

Without hesitation, the other woman begins to put another card down on top of it. She stops, notices the "I love you," and looks at the other woman who is smiling at her.

With her card still in hand, she jumps up and runs to the woman across the table. They embrace.

A woman nervously walks into a bar. She looks around the room for someone.	Upbeat and sentimental music plays over the scene
Her eyes land on a man who sits alone at the bar.
She freezes for a moment, then takes a deep breath and starts toward him.
He looks at her and smiles. She smiles shyly back.
The couple sit together at the bar with drinks.
They are talking animatedly.
They both laugh at something that is said. Then suddenly, the woman stops and looks down.
We focus on the woman. She hesitantly looks up, embarrassed. We can feel the butterflies and nervousness.

He is smiling at her with understanding.
They both take a sip of their drinks as they smile with their eyes.	Text: Let your first impressions be lasting impressions
